To the world renowned Baker's Chocolate.

T. J. Ross, Esq., is in town, having arrived Thursday morning. He informed his attorneys, Messrs. Rives & Rives, that he had come to settle all claims the county had against him on account of the School Fund, including the excess, the General County Fund having, as he claims, been settled by his attorneys for him. The tax-payers would be glad to know that the matter could be settled without litigation or expense to the county.

Proceedings Board of Supervisors.

Monday, Dec. 5, 1887.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, all the members present, also clerk and sheriff.

In the matter of a certain paper, purporting to be a report of T. J. Ross, Treasurer, it was ordered that the same, together with the warrants and certificates therewith filed, be continued until the next term of this Board.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Board that Willis Banks, County Contractor, has been charged with costs and dues of the following prisoners, never received by him, Zack Stringfellow, $139.65 and Lewis Dantzer, $18.75, it was ordered that Banks have credit for said amounts; and it appearing that Ship Tate died May 16, 1887, leaving balance due by him of $16, it was ordered that said contractor have credit for last named amount.

Petition of W. W. Robbins, et al., to incorporate T. 13, R. 18 was filed for 30 days.

Tuesday, Dec. 6, 1887.

The account of T. J. Ross, County Treasurer, as made by R. G. Rives, his attorney, of the balance due to the county, of the General Fund of said county, was heard, and the Board being satisfied that prior to the filing of said settlement by R. G. Rives, Attorney &c., the said Treasurer had wasted, misapplied or embezzled the balance due the county from said General Fund, and the Board being advised that the county, in such state of case, has a right to recover double the amount so wasted, misapplied or embezzled, and it further appearing to the Board that said Treasurer, or his attorney, does not offer to make a complete settlement with this county, of what said Treasurer is due from the General Fund and County School Fund; and that further appearing to the Board that said Treasurer, or his attorney, does not offer to pay double the amount of said General Fund so wasted, misapplied or embezzled; it is therefore ordered by the Board, all the members voting in the affirmative, that further action on the settlement of said Treasurer, so filed by his Attorney of the balance due the General County Fund, be and the same is hereby deferred till the first result of the litigation hereinafter ordered.

In the matter of the settlement of T. J. Ross, Treasurer:

Whereas, it appears that the county Treasurer was due a balance from the General County Fund of $—, which said Treasurer, prior to his account filed herein in August 1887, had wasted, misapplied or embezzled, the Board do order, all the members voting in the affirmative, that suit be brought on said Treasurer's General bond for the amount allowed by law for said balance; and the Board further ordered that J. E. Madison be employed to conduct said proceedings for the county, and that for his said fees, he shall receive 15 per cent. of the amount collected over and above the balance now conceded to be due by said Treasurer.

T. E. Fancher was ordered to put in good order in ten days, his link of the Memphis and Bug's ferry road.

L. F. Cole, overseer of 2d link of Macon and Fairfield road, was ordered to put it in good condition in ten days.

C. H. Bridges, overseer 1st link of Macon and Fairfield road, was required to work and cut down what is known as the Bryon hill, with the road hands under his charge, within ten days.

Publication was ordered to be made that contracts will be awarded on first Monday in January, 1888, to physician to Jail and Poor House, and Supt of Poor House, the Supt to give bond in the sum of $500.

A. C. Fant, Co. Treasurer, this day made report, and the same being considered, and the Board having cancelled the warrants for which credit is asked, it was ordered that said report be received and spread upon the minutes in the words and figures following, to-wit:

The following report was received and approved, and ordered spread upon the minutes, as follows:

Macon, Dec. 2, 1887.

Respectfully referring to report made to your honorable Board on the 6th day of September last, showing that I had received the sum of $81.50 from certain Justices of the Peace, for and on account of the State Distributive School Fund, I now beg leave to report that I have paid over said sum to A. C. Fant, County Treasurer, as will appear by reference to said Treasurer's receipt hereto attached.

Respectfully,

ROBERT O. PATTY.

Farmers and others who have a little leisure time for the next few months will find their interest to write to B. F. Johnson & Co., of Richmond, Va. They offer great inducements to persons to work for them all or part of their time.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's father, L. B. Richards, near Moultrieville, Dec. 1, 1887, by Rev. E. Pace, Mr. J. B. WATKINS and Miss WILLIAM RICHARDS.

A Sad Death.

We learn from parties from Brooksville this morning that Miss Lillie Woodfin, of Crawfordville, in a fit of delirium, caused by typhoid fever, jumped into a cistern and broke her neck. She was the daughter of W. F. Woodfin, an old citizen and merchant.

The proceedings of the Board of Supervisors will be read with interest. It will be seen that J. E. Madison, Esq., has been employed to bring suit on the Treasurer's General County bond for the balance due from the General County Fund. The Attorney for Mr. Ross claims that this balance has been settled, and the Treasurer's report and vouchers are on file with the clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Mr. A. C. Bogle has been presented by his friend, Winston Jones, with the handsomest desk ever brought to Macon. It is a high roll globe desk, five feet long, locks all with one key, and has all the conveniences the busiest man could ask for.

Rev. Mr. Long and wife have returned from a pleasant sojourn among relatives in east Tennessee, and Mr. Long will fill his pulpit to-morrow at the usual hours.

Horse Hunter bridge near the depot, next to the western abutment, has fallen in, a heavy drift just above having thrown the current with force enough against the abutment to wash out the sand from around the mud sill.

As will be seen in another column, Messrs. N. Scales & Co., have been so fortunate as to engage our friend Emmet Cavett as salesman for the ensuing year. Emmet was born and raised in this county, and is well and favorably known by all, and although this is a new departure for him, we venture to predict that he will soon be in the front rank of our salesmen. We congratulate Messrs. Scales on their choice.

Christmas at Hardin's.

Clas Hardin and a score of clerks have been busy for two or three days and nights, unpacking and displaying a large stock of Holiday goods. Everything will be arranged and ready for sale by next Monday, and the ladies and the public generally are invited to call and inspect. There is a great variety, and we will not attempt to enumerate. All bills bought early will be packed and marked, ready to be delivered when called for. Call at once and make selections.

A $20 GIFT.

Cut this out and present it within next 30 days to Thos. M. Ferguson, of Suwanee, Miss., and he will accept it as Twenty Dollars, in a cash sale for a Davis Sewing Machine at catalogue prices. Full particulars will be mailed free on application to the above address.

Disolution Notice.

By mutual consent I have this day withdrawn from the firm of Rosser, Lipscomb & Co., said firm paying all liabilities.
